Community & School Programs

Live percussion, storytelling and hands-on music-making invite students, families and community audiences to explore rhythm together.

PROGRAMS

School Assemblies & Family Concerts Live world percussion, stories and instrument demonstrations introduce students and families to rhythm and cultural context. Participants get a chance to take part in the music.

Rhythm Workshops & Drum Circles Tom guides participants in group rhythm and shared music-making, adapting the workshop or drum circle to the age, experience and setting of the people taking part.

Community & Outreach Performances Tom brings live percussion and cultural storytelling to festivals, public gatherings and community venues, with participatory elements tailored to the audience and the host's setting.

BOOKING OVERVIEW

Designed For
K-12 schools, libraries, families, festivals and community organizations.

Program Elements
Live percussion, storytelling, instrument demonstrations and hands-on rhythm. School formats can connect music with classroom subjects.

Typical Length
School and community programs typically run 45-60 minutes. Longer workshops are available by arrangement.

Presentation Options
School assembly, family concert, facilitated drum circle, workshop or public performance. Ask about virtual school formats and teacher resources.